Description:

Rare early regional map of France, extending form Isle D'Oleron to the Seure River and Lusson, centered on Isle de Re.

The map includes multiple sailing vessels and an ornate compass rose.

The map is based upon a locally published map by Jerome Bachot (1596-1635?). At the center right, the city of Saint-Jean-d'Angely, a protestant stronghold during the Wars of religion appears, with two roads leading to it from the west.

The map appeared in Tavernier's rare Théâtre géographique du royaume de France.
