Description:

Fine, Detailed Map of the British Isles

Decorative, large-format map of the British Isles by Jaillot.

Portions of France, Belgium, and the Netherlands are included to the east, separated from England by the Pas de Calais. The Western Isles and the Orkneys are off of Scotland, while the Scilly Islands are just west of Cornwall. In the upper right corner is an inset of the Upper Orkneys with the Faroes and Shetlands northwest and northeast respectively.

The British Isles are divided into nations and counties, with towns, cities, and rivers highlighted. Hadrian's Wall is prominently shown. The wall was built by the Romans in 122 CE to protect their settlements in the south. London and Westminster are marked as close, yet separate cities.
