Description:

Scarce map of the area from Antibes, Nice, Monaco and Vintimiglia on the Mediterranean to Le Valle Protestestanti, Pinerolo, and the source of the Po and Durenza Rivers in the Maritime Alps. This map originally appeared in Rossi's rare Mercurio Geografico.

The map is a tremendous example of the fine topographical style of Rossi's maps, elegantly tracing rivers through steep defined mountain valleys. The map includes a key in the lower-left that depicts the symbols used on the map for towns and settlements of various types.

This map was based on the cartography produced by Giacomo Cantelli da Vignola, who was court cartographer to Francesco II d'Este, Duke of Modena, at the time that this map was produced.
