Description:

Rare "Lafreri School" bird's eye view map of the environs of Metz' published by Bertelli.

The map shows the city shortly after the Treaty of Chambord in 1552. The map mainly focuses on the fortifications, city walls, defense system and the surrounding towns.

In the lower left a key is included naming 54 locations, with more locations marked on the map.

The map also appeared in Giulio Ballino's De' Disegni delle più belle illustri città e fortezze del Mondo, published 1569 in Venice, by Zaltieri.
