Marvelous example of Tanner's map of Mississippi, from the last edition of Tanner's Universal Atlas.

This example of the map was first issued in 1836. It is hand colored by counties, and shows towns, roads with distances, railroads, steamship routes, and a host of other details. One of the best early atlas maps of Mississippi, with still primitive counties in the Northwest.

Detailed Condition:

A lightly toned example, with a bit of soiling.
