Description:

Striking example of Homann's map of Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia and a portion of Russia, extending from the Oder to the Black Sea and Smolensko, centered on Wilna.

The map includes all of Poland and Prussia, along with Kieve, on the Dniepr. Gorgeous allegorical cartouche and coat of arms. This is a curious later edition of the map, with a modified privilege and the date of 1739 added to the title. Our guess is that this is at least state 3 of the map.

Detailed Condition:

A bit of foxing in the upper center margin, just touching image.
