Description:

A highly detailed map of the state, colored by counties, and showing the extent of the township surveys to date. The map is packed with contemporary information, including towns, mines, mountains, elevations, military and Indian lands (with dates of Reservation Acts and other notes), lakes, rivers, early roads and a host of other information. Perhaps the most detailed map of the state published in a commercial atlas during this time. From the earliest attainable edition of the Indexed Atlas of the World.
