Description:

Rare plan of San Sebastien, published by Gaspar Baillieu in Paris.

The map shows the bay and fortifications of San Sebastien, St. Martin and environs. The roads and gates between the settlement area is also shown. A key locates approximately 30 points of interest.

The map was likely prepared at or about the time of the French Siege of San Sebastien in 1721. The town was besieged and taken over by the troops of the French Duke of Berwick up to 1721.

The map is quite scarce, with no appearance on the market in the past 25 years.
