Description:

Rare 4 sheet map of the Kingdom of Hungary, published by Nolin in collaboration with Coronelli in Paris.

The map follows the course of the Danube from Austria and Croatia in the West to Serbia and western Romania in the East, centered on Budapest.

The map is drawn from the same collaboration which resulted in the creation of a pair of magnificent globes for Louis XIV, involving two of Europe's most prolific mapmakers of the period. The map includes exceptional detail, and includes bridges across major rivers, topographical features, coats of arms and a host of other fine details.

Detailed Condition:

4 sheet map, unjoined.
