Description:

Scarce map showing the Seat of War in Virginia and Maryland, during the American Revolution.

The map extends west to the Alleghany Mountains and includes Delaware and the North part of North Carolina and Southern part of New Jersey and Philadelphia.

Includes good topographical details, counties, towns, rivers, mountains, lakes, etc.

Curiously, the map still shows the location near Fort Necessity where George Washington was captured by the British in 1754.

Detailed Condition:

Minor expert repairs at fold intersection near the words "The Atlantic".
