Description:

One of the classic maps of the Great Lakes region. Extends from the Upper Mississippi to the Iroquois River, including all of the Great Lakes. The Chekogou (Chicago) River is shown (two versions and two spellings), along with Fort Miamis. There are a number of small vignettes showing Indian life, trees, huts, drying fish, etc. Includes early and often mythical place names. Karpinski p.117. A striking example of this important map of the Great Lakes region.
