Description:

Striking example of the 1826 edition of Mississippi from Finley's General Atlas, hand colored by counties and showing towns, roads, rivers, mountains and other geographical features.

This first state of the map can be identified by the absence of Yazoo Lower Town and Hoomisha Town in the Choctaw Indian Lands, which do not appear until the second edition of the map. Excellent Indian detail in the Northern two-thirds of the state, which lacks a number of Northern Counties. The original massive Hindes Parish below the Choctaw Indian lands has not yet been subdivided into Washington, Yazoo, Madison, Copia and Simpson Parishes. The later editions also show several Missionary Stations in the Indian Lands which are not present in the early states of the map, while the early Indian Agencies begin to disappear.
