Description:

Flawless example of Ortelius' map of the travels of St. Paul the Apostle through the Mediterranean, extending west to Italy and east to the Euphrates, including parts of the Red Sea and the Black Sea. Two ornate scenes from the St. Paul's travels are illustrated and colored with unusual detail. Several sailing ships and sea monsters in the Mediterranean. At the bottom, a quote from Corinthians. The 1624 edition can be distinguished from those published between 1579 and 1612 by the correction of the spelling of Chorographicus in the title--the earlier examples spelling it Corographicus. A fine example with wide margins and unusually fine color. Van den Broecke 181; Laor 545; Karrow 16c.
