Description:

Interesting map of the northeastern part of the United States, bounded by New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, etc.

Indiana appears in northern Virginia. Connecticut reserve appears on the Cayahoga River. The shapes of Vermont and Rhode Island are very odd.

Decorative vignette of Niagara Falls. A marvelous early map.
