Description:

Detailed map of Mexico, Texas, Upper California and the Southwest, issued shortly after Texas and Upper California became a part of the United States.

The Austin Colony appears prominently in Texas, along with Austin's Grant, Washington, Houston, Goliad, and a number of other early settlements.

The map also provides a fascinating look at the pre-Gold Rush Upper California and nice details on the Great Spanish Trail and Salt Lake region. Many Indian tribes located throughout the west. Fremont's name now appears on the map (Fremont Lake) and the cartography reflects his travels in California. Huge Tule Lake. A number of early towns are named (Pueblo de Los Angeles!), along with the California Missions.

A marvelous early map of the region. From an early edition of Mitchell's Universal Atlas.
