Description:

Striking example of Hubert Jaillot's final double hemisphere map of the World, published in Amsterdam, in 1706.

The map shows California as an island. The unknown southern continent appears, along with a partial New Zealand and Australia. The map also includes the mythical land bridge between Japan and the West Coast of North America, and early Great Lakes projection.

Fine decorative image, surmounted by a French Royal Coat of Arms.

Detailed Condition:

Expertly repaired split at left side of map, in the Western Pacific.
