Description:

A wonderful map of Ireland, colored by counties and showing towns, roads, railroads, lakes, rivers, canals, battlefields, islands and other details.

An excellent pre-Civil War map. JH Colton was one of the two pre-eminent American publishers of maps and atlases in the mid-19th century. From the scarce 1859 edition, bearing the imprint of Johnson & Browning, one year before these two publishers commenced publication of Johnson's Illustrated Family Atlas of the World.

Attractive color and decorative border.
