Description:

New York to Paris in 33 hr, 29 m is the name of this printed cotton textile depicting the solo flight of Charles Lindbergh from New York to Paris.

Even before Lindbergh completed his 1927 flight, a cotton toile fabric was made by Passaic Print Works for Witcombe-McGeachin & Co. a New York drapery company to commemorate the event.

The fabric shows a diapered field with vertical oval medallions, framed by wings, enclosing representations of

- 'New York to Paris in 33hr 29m'
- Charles Lindbergh imagery
- Spirit of Saint Louis
- Paris, New York
- San Diego
- Portrait of Charles Lindbergh

Smaller versions of the same fabric fragment are in the following museum Collection:

- Museum of Fine Arts Boston:
