Description:

Rare pictorial map of the World, published by Dog World Magazine of Chicago in 1936 and drawn by E. Frantz.

The map depicts the "164 pure breeds of dogs, covering all the known pure breeds of dogs on the face of the earth."

We are unsure of the source for the number 164, which has apparently grown since 1936--my wife points out that it does not include her favorite breed, the Shiba Inu.
