French Explorers

The map side includes an illustrated overview of the French explorations of Great Lakes and the Mississippi River Valley, between 1669 and 1687. The focal point of the map are the exploits of the following explorers:

- Mackinaw (1669)
- Jacques Marquette & Louis Joliet (1673)
- Louis Hennepin (1680)
- Rene-Robert Cavelier, Sieur de La Sale (1669-1687)

Below the map is a more detailed time line of the French Explorers and history of North America from 1493 to 1682.

Organization and Development

This non-map side includes numerous vignettes of important American Events and Presidents.

The text consists of an overview on the organization of the Federal Government, along with a history of the
