Description:

One of the Earliest Obtainable American Charts of the Florida Keys

Detailed chart of the region centered on the southern tip of Florida, providing an extensive charting of the Florida Keys.

Extends from Key Biscayne and the Miami River in the north to Dry Tortuga in the west, Havana to the south and the Bahama Bank in the east.

The map is highly detailed. Includes a table of Lighthouses, Tides, Remarks, extensive soundings and other details.

The present example is in unusually good condition, lacking the normal browning and fold splits seen on this map.
