Description:

Highly detailed large format lithographed map of Oakland, stretching north from Bay Farm Island, Alameda, to the Summit Reservoir north of Berkeley.

The map was published by Woodward, Watson & Co., Oakland real estate dealers at 1172 Broadway.

The city is depicted after many of the neighborhoods had been laid out, but many large plots of land are still owned by individuals, who are named.

The University of California, Berkeley is shown.

Detailed Condition:

Light toning at folds. Two very small areas of loss along folds.
