Description:

Fine detailed plan of the island of Santa Domingo, first published by Guillaume De L'Isle.

The coat of arms and fleur de llis show signs of having been defaced during the French Republican period, as is frequently the case.

Excellent detail throughout includes realistic depictions of bays, mountains, islets, lagoons, forests, etc., which are combined with details of human development of the flourishing colony. Each town, plantation house, windmill, watermill, and sugar works is indicated, as well as gun emplacements, fortifications, anchorages, and government houses.

Detailed Condition:

The coat of arms and fleur d'lis show signs of having been defaced during the French Republican period, as is frequently the case.
