Description:

Fine Pierre Mortier edition of Jaillot's large decorative map of Sicily, showing the eruption of Mount Aetna both on the map and below the decorative title cartouche.

The island is divided into 3 provinces including Valle Di Demona, Valle De Mazara and Valle Di Noto with significant cartographic and geographic information included.

The title cartouche includes two sea gods holding the cartouche aloft, with a coat of arms and other allegorical figures riding atop the image. A fine decorative example with wide clean margins and 2 large cartouches.
