An Educational Rarity

Fine wall map of the United States, focusing on explorations, discoveries and Indian Tribal regions. The map is copyrighted by Eugenia A. Wheeler Goff and published by A.H. Andrews & Co.

A note in the March 1891 edition of the Wisconsin Journal of Education, Volume 21, page vi:

Prof. and Mrs. Goff of Minnesota have spent a great many years on the special studies of geography and history. A number of publications issued by them have already had a successful run in that vicinity. For some little time past they have been preparing material for a series of historical maps. In 1889 their Historical Map of the United States was issued and covers on a single sheet 62 x 64 inches.

The location of all historical events in the history of this country. To meet the demand for more detailed information on discoveries and explorations and on a scale large enough and clear enough for class use, they have now Issued Goff's Historical Maps of the United States, No. 1, Discoveries and Explorations. This map is five feet square and is published by A. H. Andrews & Co. of Chicago, and in view of the present great interest in this epoch of
