Description:

Interesting pictorial / gasoline map of the United States, illustrating on a state by state basis great events in American History.

The map is geared toward children, providing a lively and sometimes politically off-color look at America's history.

Includes a number of icons of popular literature, making for an interesting blend of fact and fiction.
Includes several smaller maps on verso.

The map has a similar title and theme to John Dukes McKee's American Folklore and Legend, published in 1950.
