Description:

Rare Harbor Charts of Florida, Bahamas, Cuba, Jamaica & Puerto Rico

Rare set of Harbor charts, drawn from Henry Popple's 20 sheet map of the British Colonies in North America.

Includes on of the earliest appearances of any charting of Providence and Nassau in the Bahamas, drawn from Henry Popple's map.

While the map maker is not formally identified, we infer from the initials (PB), the date of the map, the privilege and the address on the map "Quay de la Megisserie au St. Esprit pres le Pont Neuf," that the maker must be Philippe Buache.

This is one of the earliest obtainable maps to incorporate the views from Popple's map.
