Description:

With Detailed Engraved Map of the British North American Colonies

This volume of the Annual Register, includes several maps including an interesting map of the British Colonies at the end of the French & Indian War, based upon John Mitchell's seminal map of 1755:

The New Map of the British Dominions in North America; with the Limits of the Government annexed thereto by the late Treaty of Peace, and settled by Proclamation October 7th, 1763

The map shows the many French and English Forts in the Mississippi and Ohio Valleys, along with numerous Indian Tribes on either side of the Mississippi River. Includes a large inset showing Florida as an Archipelago. Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia extend to the Mississippi, although Pennsylvania extends west only to Ft. Pitt.

The other maps included in the volume, all folding:

- An Accurate Map of the Seat of War in the Kingdom of Prussia . . .
- A New Map of the Seat of War on the Coast of Malabar, Coromandel, in the Empire of the Great Mogol . . .
- A New and Correct Chart of the Seat of War, on the Coasts of France, Spain, Portugal and Italy; with the adjacent Coasts & Islands, in the Ocean and Mediterranean Sea.
