Description:

Well-executed portrait of Louis XIV, depicting the King of France and one of the most powerful rulers of Europe at the time of this image's publication. Surrounding the king is a tree listing all of his accomplishments, and at the base of the map it describes him as "Louis the great, the invincible, the happy, the wise, the conqueror."

This image appeared at the front of Coronelli's Atlante Veneto, in a section that depicted all the great rulers of Europe and allegorical representations of their countries.
