Description:

Scarce English map of the Holy Land, extending into the adjoining Middle East and eastern Mediterranean. The map was published by John Senex in London around 1716.

The events depicted are based on Genesis, Chapter I. The early peoples mentioned in the Bible are located on the map, as are important settlements.

In the lower-left of the map is an inset titled: "The Incampments of the Israelites in the Desert."

The map appeared in Senex's Sacred Geography Contained in Six Maps, in the editions of 1716 and 1725. The view was later copied in reduced form by Seale, in the 1730s.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color in outline. Toning and minor foxing. Some wear at edges, not proceeding past the neatline.
