

Barry Lawrence Ruderman Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

Vienna

Stock#: 95226
Map Maker: Lloyd
Date: 1850 circa Place: Trieste
Color: Uncolored
Condition: VG
Size: 11.25 x 9 inches
Price: $ 175.00

Description:

This engraved view of Vienna provides a stunning perspective of the city, rich with architectural and historical resonance. The central image depicts Vienna from across the Danube, looking to the southwest, showcasing the city's grandeur and intricate urban layout.

Surrounding this central image are depictions of notable locations and landmarks, each holding its unique place in Vienna's history.

1. Neuer Markt: This historical square in the heart of Vienna's inner city has been a significant marketplace for centuries. It is home to several historic monuments, including the Donnerbrunnen fountain, which has stood as a symbol of the city's elegance and artistry since the early 18th century.
2. Graben: Another essential square in Vienna, Graben has evolved from a defensive trench in the medieval city to a vibrant commercial hub. Lined with magnificent Baroque architecture, it encapsulates the transformation of Vienna from a fortified settlement to a cosmopolitan center of culture.
3. Hof: The Hofburg Palace is a vast complex has been the seat of power for various emperors and political regimes for over six centuries. Its architectural grandeur reflects the influence and prestige of the Austrian Empire at its height.

Barry Lawrence Ruderman Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

Vienna

4. Leopoldstadt mit Ferdinandsbrücke: Leopoldstadt, the second municipal district of Vienna, has a rich multicultural history, particularly as a home for the city's Jewish community. Ferdinandsbrücke, a historic bridge named after Emperor Ferdinand I, symbolizes Vienna's desire to bridge its diverse communities and connect the city across the Danube.
5. Maria Stiegen: Known for its picturesque stairway leading to the Maria am Gestade Church, Maria Stiegen is a hidden gem within the city. The church itself is one of Vienna's oldest Gothic structures, serving as a testament to the city's rich religious heritage.
6. Michaeler-Platz: A prominent square located at the entrance to the Hofburg Palace, Michaeler-Platz has witnessed centuries of Viennese history. It is framed by the majestic Michaelertor gate and St. Michael's Church, creating an architectural ensemble that narrates a complex historical tapestry.
7. Freiung: Freyung square holds a layered history, once serving as a sanctuary for fugitive criminals seeking refuge. The Schottenstift Monastery, founded in the 12th century, adds a spiritual dimension to the location's intriguing past.
8. Stephansdom: St. Stephen's Cathedral, or Stephansdom, is the mother church of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Vienna and a symbol of Vienna's spiritual life. With its iconic Gothic architecture and its role as the final resting place for many significant historical figures, it anchors the city's rich religious tradition and architectural legacy.

Collectively, these images present a multidimensional portrait of Vienna, a city where history and artistry converge, and where every street and square tells a story. The central view from across the Danube frames these elements, offering a visual narrative that transcends time, capturing Vienna's soul and immortalizing its enduring appeal.

Detailed Condition: