Description:

Fantastic decorative pictorial map of Malta and Gozo, published by the local designer Renzo Borg Gresch.

The map shows the two major islands with major sites depicted pictorially. Built-up areas are shown in black, and roads are shown in red. Reservoirs, hotels, and lakes are also shown. Ferry lines are depicted.

Malta, a small yet captivating archipelago in the Mediterranean Sea, offers a rich blend of history, culture, and natural beauty that appeals to travelers of all ages. The capital city, Valletta, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, filled with grand Baroque architecture, narrow streets, and impressive fortifications. The ancient city of Mdina, known as the "Silent City," provides a glimpse into Malta's medieval past, while the stunning Blue Grotto and the prehistoric temples of Ħaġar Qim and Mnajdra showcase the island's long history.

This map was published by the ABC Stationers in Valletta.
