Description:

Large map of Honolulu, showing street, buildings, street car lines, bus lines, and a host of other details.

Includes a business directory, listing over 60 places of interest. Nice pre-WWII map.

On the verso is an early road map of Oahu, published by the Honolulu Automobile Club in 1921.

The map highlights paved roads in red, dirt and unpaved roads in black, and private roads in a dashed black line. The map also features a rather unusual way of measuring mileage from Honolulu, assigning three symbols to the mileage depending on the route taken.
