Description:

Virginia Indians: A Pomeiooc Elder in Winter Attire

Fine copper plate engraving showing Theodore De Bry's version of John White's painting of a Pomeiooc elder. This plate was published as part of De Bry's edition of Hariot's tales of his time in Virginia as part of the White expedition.

In 1585 Governor John White was part of a voyage from England to the Outer Banks of North Carolina under a plan of Sir Walter Raleigh to settle "Virginia." White was at Roanoke Island for about thirteen months before returning to England for more supplies. During this period, he made a series of over seventy watercolor drawings of indigenous people, plants, and animals. The purpose of his drawings was to give those back home an accurate idea of the inhabitants and environment in the New World. The
