Description:

Fine old color example of this rare separately published map of Poland, signed by Jodocus Hondius.

Guenter Schilder noted that it cannot be determined with certainty whether this map should be attributed to Jodocus Hondius Sr. or his son Jodocus Jr. The engraving style places this map very probably in the group of folio-sized maps with decorative borders first published by Jodocus Hondius Sr. in 1606/07."

Includes decorative borders surround the map. The top and bottom borders are occupied by town views in oval frames, while the side borders consist of three costumed figures each. Top border: Dantzick, Cracovia, Breslaw. Bottom border: Posnania, Sandomiria, Crosno, Biecz. Side borders: Costumed figures.

Detailed Condition:

Original Color. Trimmed to just within border and mounted on heavy paper. Evidence of abrasions and old fold split.
