Description:

Scarce map of Mexico and the American Southwest, Texas, and South.

The map appeared in Géographie moderne, rédigée sur un nouveau plan, ou Description historique, politique, civile et naturelle des empires, royaumes, Etats et leurs colonies..., which includes a correlation of key aspects of ancient and medieval geography with modern geography. This work is a French translation of John Pinkerton's treatise on geography and was published in Paris in 1804. Evidently Jean-Nicolas Buache based the maps on those drawn Aaron Arrowsmith for the English edition of Pinkerton's treatise.
