Description:

Nice example of the Ogilby/Montanus map of the Southeast, extending from the York River in Virginia to northern Florida. The map is based largely upon Blaeu's map of 1640 and Jansson's map of 1641, although with much richer cartouches and several coats of arms. The work was prepared under the direction of Dr. Olaf Dapper and engraved by Jacob Meurs in Amsterdam. Nice full color example. The map has been remargined at the top and bottom, with a bit of the neatline added in manuscript. Still a very attractive example of this increasingly scarce map. Cumming 67.
