Description:

Fine gold heightened old color example of Blaeu's map of Southern Sweden.

The present example is a late state of the map, with credit to Andrea Bareo for the map and an elegant dedication carouche at the left corner, both of which are added to the map after its original publication.

Cartouches depict numerous coat of arms and an army of peasants following a man in a chariot drawn by dogs.

Decorative map of Gothia published around 1640-50 by Johannes Blaeu. The map is richly decorated with a large figurative cartouche, scale of miles and in the upper corners with two coats of arms of Gothia in Sweden.
