Description:

Second state of De Fer's early map of Quebec, illustrating Sir William Phips' attack on Quebec in 1690.

Following his success at Port Royal, Phips assembled a fleet in Boston for an expedition agains the Canadian stronghold in Quebec. The operation proved to be disastrous, as Phips under-equipped armada encountered much stronger defenses at Quebec. The map provides a great view of the battle lines of the fleet and details of the French defenses, based on manuscripts recorded by Villeneuve.
