Description:

The rare last edition of the De L'Isle-Buache Map of the America. The first edition of this map appeared in 1722. It went through a total of 19 incarnations, tracking most of the great cartographic evolutions of the 110 year life of the map. From the first De L'Isle edition, the map evolved through rare Russian variants, the Fricx Belgian edition, the Covens & Mortier and Buache editions which introduced the Bay of the West, to the early Dezauche editions, which tracked the evolving knowledge of the NW Coast of America and finally to this rare late Dezauche edition (Tooley #19), which shows a 54-40 or fight Oregon border and an inset with the most recent information concerning Russian America.
