Description:

Seminal map of the Gulf Coast, based upon information obtained from the War of Spanish Succession and other contemporary sources. A marvelous depiction of Florida, the Keys and the Bahamas. Considerably rarer than De L'Isle's contemporary map (Carte Du Mexique et de la Floride) and more focused on the Caribbean and Gulf Coast regions. De Fer's maps of the region were some of the most influential and important of the era. A bit toned and archivally backed, else a nice example of a scarce and important work.
