Description:

Striking large and highly detailed map of the Gulf of Venice, Adriatic and contiguous coastline of the Balkans, extending south to Corfu. Includes two immense cartouches. The title cartouche shows plans of Venice and 22 other cities in small medallions. Two of the three folds have a number of extra creases and folds, with soiling along these fold lines. There is also some marginal tearing associated with the extra folds. A small amount of verdigris cracking is also present. Still, overall, a nice example with full wide margins. From Jaillot's monumental atlas.
