Description:

Highly detailed regional map of the mid-continent. Shows Indian Reservations, Forts, Towns, Roads, Rivers, Mountains, Springs, Lakes, Railroads and a host of other details, with the text in the body of the map in English. Indian Territory is divided by Tribal lands. Stieler's maps are perhaps the most detailed atlas maps of the era, with stunning precision and attention to detail. The detail in Texas and Indian Territory is exceptional for the period.
