Description:

Detailed map of Mexico and the Southwest, featuring Texas as a Republic. The Austins Colony appears prominently in Texas, along with Austin's Grant, Washington, Houston, Goliad and a number of other early settlements. The map also provides a fascinating pre-Fremont System of Rivers in Upper California, culminating in Lake Timpanagos and the mythical southern Salt Lake. No sign of the Sierras. Many Indian Tribes located throught the West. The Russian Establishment north of San Francisco is noted, along with the California Missions. A marvelous early map of the region. From the last edition of Tanner's Universal Atlas. Map dated 1834, although updated since the copyright date.
