Highly detailed decorative map of London and Environs, extending to Gravesend in the east, Hatfield and St. Albans in the North, Westerham in the South and Uxbridge in the West.

The title "Delineatio ac finitima Regio Magnae Britanniae Metropoleos Londini ad novissimam Normam repraesentata et escusa" can be translated as "The Outline and Adjacent Region of the Metropolis of London in Great Britain, Represented and Printed According to the Latest Standards."

The map shows the various towns, roads, churches, fortified cities, rivers, harbors, etc. in and around London, including a town plan.

A nice post-fire map of the region, showing the extent of the expansion of London, which would grow to many times the size illustrated here.

Detailed Condition:

Engraving on 18th-century laid paper. Original hand-coloring. Very minor foxing at blank edges, not affecting map image.
