Description:

Rare early regional map of France. One of the more interesting features of the map is the date (1625) and the reference to the collaborative work of Henricus Hondius (who published the map in Amsterdam) and Melchior Tavernier (who sold the map in Paris). The map was bound into a rare 1631 edition of the Theatrum Universae Galliae, which Koemann referred to as an experimental atlas published by Henricus Hondius and Jan Jansson, of which only 3 copies are known to exist. A different map of Sarlat appears in later atlases by Hondius. This is also the first reference we have ever seen to the Tavernier/Hondius collaboration. A nice old color example.
