Description:

Detailed map of Nebraska, colored by counties. The West is still largely unexplored and uninhabited. Spotted Tails new Agency is one of the lone settlements in the Northwestern part of the state. Shows roads, railroads, towns, villages, post offices, rivers, stations and a host of other details. Decorative border. A terrific map, from Colton, one of the most prolific American mapmakers of the mid-19th Century. Few marginal tears that have been fixed, otherwise a great map.
