Description:

Early map of the United States, colored to show the original 13 colonies, plus the District of Main. Both East and West Florida are shown. The Claims of Georgia, North Carolina, Virginia and Pennsylvania are shown extending to the Mississippi River. Nice detail in East and West Florida and Virginia. Many Indian Tribes shown. The map has two repaired tears which extend into the image from the bottom and some minor repaired tears at the sides, all of which have been professionally restored and are nearly invisible, except upon close inspection. A nice example of this increasingly scarce map, from Bankes's A New Royal, Authentic, and Complete System of Universal Geography.
