Description:

Seminal early territorial map of Washington & Oregon, each extending to the Rocky Mountains. This is the earliest separately issued map of the two territories to appear in a Commercial Atlas and is pre-dated only by a few government surveys and the Greenleaf Oregon Territory map. Only two counties east of the Cascades. Excellent detail east of the Cascade Mtns, including Indian Tribes, Villages, rivers, forts, Steven's Route, several forts, and other details. A seminal early map for Northwest collectors. From the first edition of JH Colton's New General Atlas. Wide clean margins.
