Description:

Decorative map of China, Tartary, Japan, Central Asia, etc. at the beginning of the 18th Century. Includes the mythical land bridge to America, the Island of Formosa or Bell Island, and other interesting details. This map was part of an atlas dedicated to the Duke of Gloucester, who was then attending school in Oxford. The maps were highly regarded at the time for their accuracy. A nice example full color example, with the English coat of arms highlighted in gold and nice wide margins.
